Office Hours: Posted on office door or by appointment

Purpose of Course: To acquire a broad perspective of the history, sounds, and styles of the music commonly called Contemporary American Music. Students will become familiar with significant musician performers, composers, bandleaders, performance venues, recordings, and cultural happenings that have encouraged and continue to encourage the development and evolution of American Music. By reading text assignments, attending class lectures, observing live performances, and listening to jazz recordings, students will develop a mature and individualized understanding of the art form.

Required Materials: To Be Announced

Grading:

100 points	Exam #1
100 pints	Exam #2
100 points	Exam #3
100 points	Research paper

400= TOTAL POINTS

Attendance Policy: Students are expected to attend class regularly. Alacrity is appreciated. The instructor will take roll in class. Because the class will often include group discussion, class attendance is crucial. Consequently, absences will negatively affect a student's final grade. Absences will drop a student's grade based upon the following attendance policy.

1-3 absences: No grade deduction

4th absence: 3- point deduction from final grade

5th absence: 5- point deduction from final grade

* Each additional absence will result in another 5- point deduction from the student's final grade.

Quiz Policy: Students are expected to take assigned quizzes on the scheduled day. If a student fails to be present for the quiz (due to tardiness or absence), the student will NOT be allowed to "make up" the quiz without a valid excuse, such as a medical or family emergency.

Accommodations: South Plains College strives to accommodate the individual needs of all students in order to enhance their opportunities for success in the context of a comprehensive community college setting. It is the policy of South Plains College to offer all educational and employment opportunities without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, disability, or age (SPC Equal Opportunity Policy – General Catalog)

Disabilities Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. Consistent with the latest CDC recommendations, we have revised our guidance for students, faculty, and staff who have a known exposure or have tested positive. Anyone with a known exposure should wear a mask for 10 days and should seek a COVID-19 test on day five after exposure. If you test positive or develop symptoms, you should immediately self-isolate and seek a COVID-19 test. Please immediately notify your instructor, supervisor, and DeEtte Edens, Associate Director of Health and Wellness, any time you test positive for COVID-19. Anyone who tests positive is required to self-isolate for five days. Following the five-day isolation period, if you are asymptomatic or your symptoms are resolving, you may return to work or class but should wear a mask for five additional days. If you are still symptomatic, please contact DeEtte Edens at dedens@southplainscollege.edu or 806-716-2376 prior to your return date.

Title IX Pregnancy Accommodations Statement

If you are pregnant, or have given birth within six months, Under Title IX you have a right to reasonable accommodations to help continue your education. To activate accommodations you must submit a Title IX pregnancy accommodations request, along with specific medical documentation, to the Director of Health and Wellness. Once approved, notification will be sent to the student and instructors. It is the student's responsibility to work with the instructor to arrange accommodations.
